

Follow the Money:
It's the Middle of the End of the
2 Political Party System
→ And an Awesome opportunity for Liberals

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Last week a friend of mine made reference to the Tea Party, as a real political party. I told him adamantly emphatically

“No! They are just a wing of the Republican Party.”

I've changed my mind.

This is the Middle of the End of America's 2 party political system.

It's the middle of the development of a 3rd party.

And it's a fantastic opportunity for Democrats and other smart people to take advantage of.

What happened is I reflected on ideas I'd heard about over the years, and synthesized it with what's going on in recent days.

There was a book out some years ago, about the emerging dominance of the Democratic Party. Years ago, a long time friend and co-politics & world analyst of mine, Danny Taylor, he predicted the splitting up of the Republican party. It would be the far Right Wing crazies that would do it.

Now it's closer to becoming reality. That's why I say this is the middle of the 3rd party.

Re-load and put Democrats in cross hairs,

Senator McCain saying he Won't Cooperate with the Democrats on ANYTHING,

This may be the final straw for any adult, mature Republican politicians (if they exist)

Scenario #1:

If

Moderate Republicans up for re-election lose their Primary's,

Then

They really have no place to go.

They could try 3rd party.

Scenario #2:

If

Tea-bag party candidates lose in the Primary,

Then

they likely will run as a 3rd party.

After all, they have been branding themselves as a political party since last summer.

Either scenario spells Fantastic news for Democrats in November, and beyond.

And for the country, the world, civilization in general.

I don't have a clue as to the scenarios for Conservative Democrats.

Have you? But, that's not the focus of this article.

As always, the critical thing to do is:

Follow the Money

- Who are the Money people behind the Tea-Bag Party?
- Being from Chicago, the question is always: What's in it for them? (for the money guys) What's their angle? What's their motivation?

- Which direction is the money trend going?
- What events could alter the trend?

Answer these questions and you've got the 1st step of issue quite in hand.

Developing our strategical and tactical approach is the next step.

The goal of course, is for us smart people, us adults, to stay in Power.

So we can create and implement solutions.

So that Do-Better Economy will progress faster.

Win-Win-Win for People, Planet & Profit

Aho!
